

Keynote Speaker

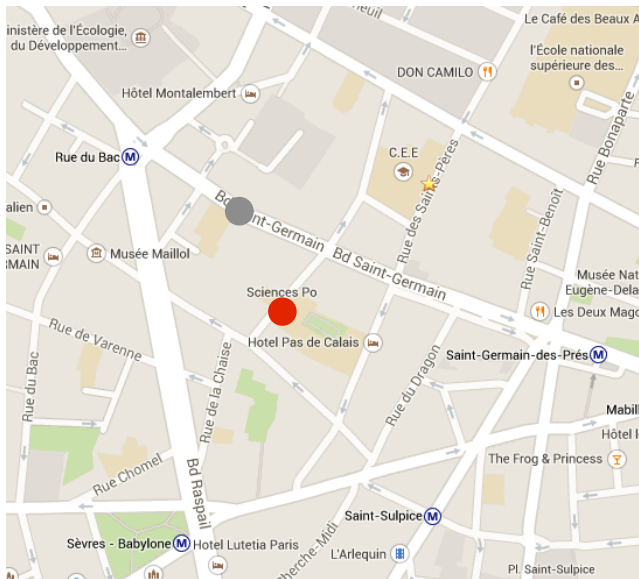

Jeremy Waldron (NYU, Oxford)

Organizers

Benjamin Boudou
Amélie Ferey
Marianne Fougère
Yoel Mitrani
Maurits de Jongh
Andrei Poama
Denis Ramond
Elise Rouméas
Tom Theuns

Venue

- Sciences Po • 27 rue Saint-Guillaume, Room Eugène d'Eichthal
- Doctoral School • 199 boulevard Saint-Germain, 3rd floor, Grande salle

SECOND GRADUATE CONFERENCE

POLITICAL THEORY

WITH
JEREMY WALDRON

SciencesPo.

CEVIPOF
CNRS

Thursday, June 19

27 rue Saint-Guillaume (3rd Floor, Room Eugène d'Eichthal)

9:00 Welcome

9:30 #1 The Boundary Problem

Moderator: Benjamin Boudou

The all effectively bound principle: A rule of law solution to the boundary problem
Attila Mráz (Central European University)

The boundary problem and modesty about the states
Jakob Huber (LSE)

11:00 Coffee Break

11:30 #2 Liberals and Radicals in the 19th Century

Moderators: Yoël Mitrani, Denis Ramond

What's not in On Liberty? Non-Millian justification of freedom of discussion in the nineteenth century

Greg Conti (Harvard University)

Civic radicals: Making politics in changing cities
Callum Ingram (University of Virginia)

1:00 Lunch Break

2:30 #3 Globalization and the State

Moderator: Marianne Fougère

Is the state a property owner? Rousseau and Hume on international property ownership

Haye Hazenberg (K.U.Leuven/Princeton)

Nation's right to exclude and the colonies

Alasia Nuti (University of Cambridge), Sara Amighetti (UCL)

Are settlement and citizenship tests compatible with liberalism?

Bouke de Vries (European University Institute)

4:30 Coffee Break

5:00 #4 Equality and its Discontents

Moderator: Elise Rouméas

A theory of oppression

Rachelle Bascara (University of London)

Two concepts of basic equality – One basis of equality

Nikolas Kirby (University of Oxford)

Redefining social exclusion for minority groups: The case of the Roma minority

Diana Popescu (LSE)

8:00 Dinner (Restaurant Fuxia, 13 rue Médicis, near the Jardin du Luxembourg)

Friday, June 20

199 boulevard Saint-Germain (3rd Floor, Grande salle)

10:00 Keynote Address

Jeremy Waldron: "Isaiah Berlin and Enlightenment Constitutionalism"

11:15 Coffee Break

11:30 #5 Waldron and Political Constitutionalism

Moderator: Tom Theuns

Rights, power and social movements: The limits of Jeremy Waldron and Richard Bellamy's political constitutionalism

Guy Aitchison (UCL)

The role of dignity in the constitutional order: Moral principle or legal right? The case of militant democracy

Miles Roger Maftan (Central European University)

1:00 Lunch Break

2:30 #6 Reclaiming the Canon

Moderator: Maurits de Jongh

Prerogative, dictatorship, veils, and corn: On the state of exception in early modern political thought

Jonathan Montpetit (McGill University)

Realizing humanity through the imitation of animality

Rebecca Aili Ploof (University of Chicago)

4:00 Coffee Break

4:30 #7 Participation and Publicity

Moderators: Amélie Ferey, Andrei Poama

Civic participation, understanding, and hate speech

Daniel Putnam (Yale University)

On political transparency: What, why, and how much?

Jonathan Bruno (Harvard University)

Public justification views of legitimacy: An unappealing hybrid

Matthias Brinkmann (University of Oxford)
